Dili Sights of Interest by Jonty Crane

As you go about your daily routine in Dili, it's easy to overlook some of the city's most intriguing spots. Here's another hidden gem worth a closer look.

Sentru Estudu Mangrove

About 35 minutes drive east of Dili (but still within the Dili municipality) is a mangrove conservation area. Boardwalks have been installed to allow visitors to explore without damaging the fragile ecosystem. There are two lookouts, one above the sea, the other on a nearby hill, which offer great views. You are likely to see monkeys jumping through the trees. Entry $1. Note that the mangroves are not easily accessible without your own transport, unless you catch a bus to Baucau and get off early.

About the author:

Jonty has published a number of books on Timor-Leste, which can be bought in Dili or online from Amazon, has recorded an Exploring Timor-Leste podcast series, developed the website www.exploringtimor.com, and has many videos promoting Timor-Leste on YouTube (@ExploringTimorLeste), and TikTok (@exploringtimor).
