Australian Navy Visit.

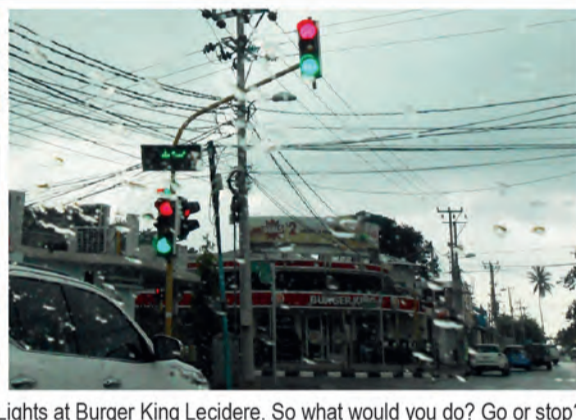

Guests were invited to celebrate the good will visit of two Armidale Class patrol boats of the Royal Australian Navy, the HMAS Launceston and HMAS Broome. The reception held in Dili port by Assistant Secretary Pacific and Timor Leste, Commodore Steve Woodall, CSC,RAN, and commanding officers of the two ships, Lieutenant Commodore Jonathan Lyons, RAN and Lieutenant Commander Robert Lewis, RAN was a very pleasant evening and also included a formal Ceremonial 'Sunset'. N.B. Traditionally at the evening 'Sunset' ceremony, the Australian White Ensign is lowered and a volley of shots are fired by the guard. The ceremonies are conducted in commissioned shore establishments, in ships alongside in harbour and by those moored to a buoy or at anchor but not if at sea.

We ran out of space last edition but this was a very 'cool' shirt at Australia Day. It deserved a viewing. Note the koala design up close. V Good.

Lights at Burger King Lecidere. So what would you do? Go or stop?
